TROUBLE BELOW.

Almost a Clash at Wingo Yesterday.

TROUBLE AMONG THE COLORED.

Warner Roberts Used an Ax Him-d'e on a Colored Man's Head.

AND THAT STARTED THE TROUBLE.

Reports reached the city today from Wingo that for awhile yesterday a race war seemed imminent at the little town below Mayfield.

Friday night a colored man named Bradford stepped on the favorite cora of Warner Roberts, white, Roberts, crazed with anger and pain demanded to know what he meant by stepping on his feet, to which the colored man replied, "D—your old feet."

No sooner than the words left his lips, Roberts struck him two or three blows on the head with an ax handle, breaking the heavy bickery in twain.

Bradford is in a dangerous condition, it is said, and yesterday when the town marshal arrested Jack Dyer, colored, in the train, there was great commotion among the colored people, and threats were made to lynch Roberts, the man who wielded the ax handle.

Guns and pistols were freely displayed, however, and the affair finally simmered down and peace prevailed.

DEATH GOT THE POT.

Alex Armstrong, Colored, Loses
His Life Over a Nickle.

SHOT BY HOWARD GARDNER.

The Murder Occurred Yesterday
Afternoon at Fulton, Ky.

GARDNER IS ONLY A BOY.

Alex Armstrong, a colored section hand, lost his life over a nickel at Fulton yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Howard Gardner, a mere boy, is the murderer, and lives at Fulton, while Armstrong's home was at Union City, Tenn.

The two parties, according to reports, were engaged in a crap game, when a dispute arose over a nickel. Hot words ensued, and Gardner drew a pistol, firing three or four shots. Only one, however, took effect, and this produced death in a short time. Gardner escaped.

Both were pretty tough customers, and Armstrong was well known here, where he had worked several times. The killing created little excitement at Fulton.

BROKEN KNIFE BLADE

Tells the Tale of an Attempted House Breaking.

The big house at 1209 Jefferson street, which has been undergoing repairs, was besieged by house breakers last night, but they did not effect an entrance.

Judge Tully has charge of it, and a broken knife blade was found sticking in the window this morning, where an attempt had been made to pry it open.

The carpenters are inside, and it is supposed that the would-be thieves were after these, as there was nothing else to steal.

THE PASSENGERS JUMPED.

They Imagined the Engine Was Going to Hit 'Em.

Sunday afternoon there was an exciting occurrence about 2:30 o'clock at the railroad crossing and Madison street. A switch engine was coming along at a lively rate, and Motorman Jones, of the People's line, who had a couple of carloads of people, apparently did not see it or the flagman. The passengers all jumped off the car in fright and confusion, but it was backed off before any damage was done.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

One to Be Held at Edsville Today to Nominate a Circuit Judge.

A delegation composed of Messrs D. L. Redding, Tom Patterson, and W. B. Graham, of Calloway county, passed through the city today en route to Edsville to attend the Republican judicial convention, to nominate a circuit judge. Brethitt, according to the above named delegates, will secure the nomination. There were three other delegates, pointed, Messrs J. M. Cole, M. H. Hoige and J. B. English, but they did not attend.

POLICE NEWS.

Business Very Dull Everywhere
Today.

Nobody is Celebrating.

National Holiday, But Judge Sanders Held Court Just the Same.

NOTES GATHERED HERE AND THERE.

Frank Morris, of the city, was fined $25 and costs in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a charge of carrying concealed a deadly weapon. He was arrested Saturday night.

George Wilson is the name of a colored man arrested by Officer Sutherland for prowling and keeping around back premises. His case was continued.

Mayfield Hudson was fined $10 and Ada Mann $5 for a breach of the peace, and George Windley, for whipping the latter, was fined $30 and costs.

A case against Henry Proctor for a breach of the peace was continued. Call Graham paid the usual dollar for drunkenness.

Alie Grimes was docketed for a breach of the peace, but the case was deferred.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A Narrow Gauge for a Watermelon—A cowardly Miscreant Who Ought to Be Hung.

A colored man and his watermelon came near being run over at the Union Depot yesterday when the noon train arrived. The man stood there like a ten pin when the train was backing in, and paid no attention to the shouts of warning around him, but clung heroically to his watermelon, probably engrossed with visions divine of the forthcoming feast. The train was stopped within a few feet of him, and he was jerked—and not very gently—off the track by a train man.

Some miscreant fired twice through the passenger train from Fulton that arrived yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. The shooting occurred below Fulton, the night before, and it is fortunate that the second who fired the shots did no harm, other than to the coach window.

C. H. Petty, fireman on No. 191, jumped off the moving locomotive yesterday afternoon at Monroe street, and lost his watch, for which he had just paid $35. He probably dropped it out of his pocket when he jumped, but did not miss it until he reached home.

Mr. George Warfield and wife have gone to Nashville on a visit of several days.

Conductor Wheeler and family passed through at noon en route to Tennessee on a visit. Conductor Sewell, who has been in Georgia, and whose run Conductor Wheeler had, has resumed work.

The railroad shops presented a deserted appearance this morning, being closed down on account of its being a national holiday.

Justice Hartley held court all day at Massac Saturday. Ed Fendran was fined $50 and costs for pointing a shot gun at Deputy Sheriff Duke Rogers, who was driving a hog from the field.

Elver Lowell was fined $50 and costs for drawing a knife on and threatening to kill Sam Hickman.

George Humphreys was fined $25.00 for cursing Tom Owens, of Ballard county.

Ed Boyd was fined $1 for refusing to work the public roads.

Harrison Hobbs and Bud Dobson, of the city, and Bud McCumall, Frank Winbly, Bud Cross and Clint Dickerson, colored, were fined $20 and costs for crap-shooting.

The daring robbery reported in the "Register" Friday as having occurred at Burkholder's Mill, near Oaks, on the N. C. & St. L., and in which a couple of colored men were robbed of the large sum of $22, happened about a week ago at Stiles, on the Illinois Central.

Shot Himself Through the Head at Princeton.

Milton Cartwright, 14 years of age, attempted suicide at Princeton by shooting himself through the head with a 32-caliber balling. The ball entered to the right eye and was taken out below his right ear, within ten minutes after the shot was fired. The doctor says Cartwright may recover, but blood poisoning is likely to set in.

Young Cartwright recently returned from Arkansas, where he had become unbalanced. He thought he had committed some crime and was to be hanged, and told his brother and sisters, with whom he lives, that yesterday was his day to die.

An old negro woman who used to belong to the boy's father saw him attempt suicide and she is now in a very serious condition as a result of the shock.

THE FOURTH.

A Rather Quiet Celebration
Today.

Attractions in Many Places.

The Parks are Full of People—
Races Well Attended.

TWO THEATERS TONIGHT.

This is the day we celebrate, but we didn't seem to celebrate much today. It has been very quiet everywhere; in fact many say it was the least enthusiastic and most uneventful day they ever saw.

Yet there was no dearth of attractions, as will be seen by a glance at the list below:

THE RACES.

This afternoon at the West End Driving Park the regular July races, lasting two days, began. The stables are well filled with good steppers and excellent sport is assured all who attend. A good crowd went out this afternoon.

AT LAUREL PARK.

There was a large crowd at La Belle Park to participate in the entertainment there. In the forenoon there was a balloon ascension, and other attractions, including dancing, sufficient to hold the interests of the crowd.

THE BALL PARK.

There were two games of baseball today with Henderson for fans and visitors, and this attraction as usual, held its own against counter attractions.

OTHER WAYS OF CELEBRATING.

Many people went over to the lakes or out to Cold Springs to enjoy a cool holiday away from the noisy city, and the result was, the city is constrained to believe from reading the above, that the city was almost depopulated—there were few left to remind one of the holiday. Nearly all the stores were closed, the banks and government buildings were high as an oyster, and all together conspired to render it a very quiet fourth, devoid even of the usual number of petty accidents.

AT RAMONA.

The A. O. U. W. picnic at Ramona Park was a delightful affair, and the crowd that attended was very large.

THEATERS TONIGHT.

This evening there will be good performances at both theaters, and they can be recommended to all.

OWEN'S CAFE.

Several hundred people went up to Owen's Cafe yesterday to attend the celebration and all reported an enjoyable time.

KILLING IN CRITTENDEN.

Thomas Lindsay Shot by Chas.
Murphy.

There is considerable excitement in Crittenden county over another murder. Thomas Lindsay and Charles Murphy, farmers, living on the same farm about eight miles from Marion, became engaged in a difficulty while feeding their stock and Murphy shot Lindsay with a shotgun, and Lindsay died within an hour. The trouble arose over some hay.

Murphy surrendered to the authorities and is now in jail.

THE MISSING QUIGG.

He Has Never Called for His Baggage Here.

Pitcher Quigg, the little twirler who came through Paducah not long since and pitched a few innings for Paducah the day Stallman got so wild, left his baggage at King's hotel on North Sixth street.

He remained there all night, but paid his bill, and accompanied to Mr. King had a big roll of money. He left, saying he was going to pitch a game for Paducah, and never did show up and get his property, which is still there, and none of the local baseball men know where he went from here.

MARRIAGES ANNOUNCED.

M. L. B. Ogilvie and Miss Berlie Woodfolk—Mr. W. H. Hobbs and Miss Ella McNett.

The marriage of Mr. L. B. Ogilvie, the well known dry goods merchant, to Miss Berlie Woodfolk, of 721 Broadway, is announced to take place on July 12, at the home of the bride. Both are among Paducah's most aristocratic people, and have many friends to wish them the greatest of happiness.

Miss Ella McNett, of the city, and Mr. William Henry Hobbs, of De Land, Fla., will be united in matrimony on July 21, at Grace Episcopal church, at 8 p. m. The bride is one of Paducah's most attractive and accomplished young ladies, and is an heiress as well. The betrothal to end on the above date began last winter while the bride-to-be was visiting in Florida.

Paducah, Ky., July 5, '97.

We, the undersigned, agree to close our respective places of business tomorrow (Tuesday, July 6), from 3 to 6 o'clock p. m.

TODAY'S GAMES.

This morning's game between Paducah and Henderson, the third of the series, resulted in a victory for the Indians, the score being 5 to 1 in favor of Paducah. It was a pretty game, played to a small crowd.

Pears and Petty in the box for the respective sides, pitched pretty good games, seven hits being made off Petty and eight off Pears. Only four errors were made, two on each side.

Schleim landed a ball over left field fence, and made the score. Noman played first this forenoon. McClelland, right field and Clifford center field.

SUMMARY, TODAY'S FORENOON GAME.

| Struck out | 1 |
| Time of game | 1:30 |

Evansville won 1 to 0.

There was a tremendous crowd out yesterday afternoon to witness the second game with Henderson, despite the sweltering heat.

Clifford, the elegant little back-slasher who had a finger badly hurt soon after signing with Paducah, and went to St. Louis, but was never released, was telegraphed Saturday to report at once, and arrived yesterday morning. He played center field.

Henderson scored three times in the first inning. Paducah did not score until the second, when two crossed the plate. In the fifth one run was made, and the score was even. Henderson scored three times in the seventh on Paducah's errors, and things began to look pretty blue for the home boys, until Stanton, the universally popular catcher, drove a ball against deep center field fence and got as far as third. Murray brought him in, and in a few seconds the score was tied again. In the eighth Paducah scored again, placing her one in the lead.

Henderson went out in one, two, three order, and the game was won by Paducah. Score 7 to 6.

Henderson kicked against the umpire, and there came near being a scrap twice over his decisions, once with Henderson's left fielder and once with the third baseman, alias "monkey trainer."

Constable Schroeder was present and arrested all the players for playing on Sunday.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

Seldom, even in periods of the greatest business activity, have the loans of the New York City banks scored as large a gain as the one reported just closed. They made an increase of $11,000,000. For several weeks past their loans have been increasing, but the expansion has made the largest known in any six days in a long time. Of course this increased demand for money is a business pointer of the highest value. It means that financial conditions are being restored, and that, unless delayed by labor disturbances, the industrial activity in these summer months will be greater than any experienced by the country in the past five years—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The citizens of Nashville, Tenn., could well afford to pay the Illinois Central Railroad Company a very large sum of money to build a road into that city, but the I. C. will not ask any subscription of them if it deems it advisable to build a line to that city. The I. C. would be worth a good many hundreds of thousands of dollars to Nashville each year, and it is not at all improbable that it will be running trains into that city within the next two years, especially if it purchases the Ohio Valley road next week, as it is thought it will certainly do.—Hopkinsville New Era.

A CLOSE CALL.

It Was for John Curd, Esquire.

John Curd, a printer formerly employed on the "News," but now of Evansville, came in Saturday and was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Litterback on a bail writ issued out by undertaker Nance before County Judge Tully. He had great difficulty in furnishing bond, and once the officer started to jail with him and got almost there, when he prevailed upon him to give him another chance to arrange the matter, and he finally succeeded in effecting a settlement with Mr. Nance.

Mr. C. M. Leake intended to take out another bail writ today on a $150 debt, but found that Curd had left the city.

MESSANGER SERVICE.

One Promised for Paducah

Pretty Soon.

Messrs. J. J. Read and Bransford

Clark the Projectors.

Messrs. Jeff J. Read, the well known Paducah coal man, and Mr.

Bransford Clark, of Owensboro, are figuring on soon inaugurating a messenger service in Paducah on the regulation metropolitan plan. If their plans are successful, they will equip a number of boys with bicycles and deliver at a nominal cost, packages, bundles, etc., to all parts of the city.

This is something that has long been needed in Paducah, and it is hoped that the gentlemen will carry out their intentions.

If you ever did need a Refrigerator

now is the time, and Scott Hardware Co. is the place.

Overcome by Heat.

John Deeg, a saddle maker employed at Reibkopf's, was overcome by heat yesterday at his home on Adam's street, and for a time was in a critical condition, but today is better.
